

The hands of the deceased, which were placed on the knees, were very big, and the hand was on the upper part of the thigh, pointing upward, presenting the position of a minister's hand when pronouncing a benediction. It is about the size of a six year old child's hand, with long, slender fingers like those of a woman, very much emaciated by sickness. The wood has enlarged formations on each finger and the thumb, representing and corresponding with the joints of the human hand. The most remarkable feature about it is the natural appearance of the nails. They had a kind of flesh color, and the rest of the hand, where the dark bark had been entirely removed, looks ghastly white.

Andrews says the grave from which it was taken is supposed to be the grave of a very devout Methodist minister by the name of Butcher.

COUNTY CONVENTION!

SATURDAY, JULY 10TH.

The Conservative party of Forsyth county are called upon to meet in Convention, at the Court House in Winston, on for the purpose of nominating a candidate as delegate to the State Constitutional Convention, which is called to meet in Raleigh on the 6th of September, for the purpose of amending the Constitution of the State.

SATURDAY, JULY 10TH.

Each Township is requested to hold a primary meeting on Saturday, July 3rd, for the purpose of nominating Township officers, and appointing delegates to the County Convention.

It is hoped that there will be a general turnout of the people.

By order of the

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The time, place and object of holding the County Convention of the Conservative party will be seen from the above. It is of the utmost importance that each township hold primary meetings and appoint delegates to the County Convention to be held at the court-house on the 10th proximo, in order to ensure harmony and good feeling in our ranks during the summer's campaign. If every Conservative who is in favor of the much needed Constitutional reform and opposed to Radical misrule, will take an interest in the Convention election, and exert himself accordingly, we have no doubt of the triumphant election of a delegate from this county who will reflect honor and credit on the State.

A large majority of the white men who voted for the present Carpet Bag State Constitution, hoped the time would soon come when an opportunity would be offered to change it to suit themselves better. That time is at hand. Let us make good use of it, for an opportunity may never be offered again.

OHIO DEMOCRATS-THEIR PLATFORM.

COLUMBUS, O., June 18.—Democratic Platform: Adherence to the principle of the fathers of the Republic. Opposition to aggressions of either upon the functions of the co-ordinate powers of the government or exercise of functions reserved to the public. Protection to all citizens regardless of anything. One term and twenty-five thousand dollars a salary. No grants of money credit or lands to any schemes. Abolition of National Banks. Issue of legal tenders to meet the wants of trade and establishment of State banks of discount and deposit under State regulations. Half of the Customs to be payable in legal tenders. No currency but legal tenders. Complete separation of church and State, and no secular schools. Continued tyranny and cruelty to Southern States denounced.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.—At the Republican meeting held on Saturday last, at the court-house, Dr. Wheeler was nominated as the Radical candidate for a seat in the Convention,—we presume, according to the Radical programme, to vote for an immediate adjournment of the Convention, as soon as convened. Such a course, we learn, Judge Pearson has declared would be revolutionary. And, we believe it would be fraught with great evil, and calculated to bring about a state of affairs much to be deplored by all good, quiet, peaceable citizens, from the Mountain region to Roanoke Island.

We learn there is considerable dissatisfaction among the Republicans, at this indication of attempting to thrust all the honors and profits of high station upon one individual.

VOTE OF THE STATE.—The Republican party in this State polls some 90,000 votes, of which 75,000 are negro votes, there being only about 15,000 white Republican voters, or about one-sixth of the strength of that party in North Carolina.

When it becomes more and more apparent, that the Republican party only use the colored men to vote, and really care nothing for them otherwise, but will cheat and swindle them out of their hard earnings whenever opportunity offers, of which the Freedmen's Saving Bank affair in Washington City, the headquarters of Radicalism, is an example, a change will come over the spirit of the dream of the colored people; and they will cut loose from a party which holds the promise to the ear but breaks it to the hope.

REFORM IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The movement begun by Gov. Chamberlain of South Carolina in the name of Reform continues to excite comment, with great division of opinion as to its scope, purpose, and probable issue. In the Columbia letter, a staff correspondent of the Tribune concludes his history of this movement, and reviews the present phases of political sentiment in South Carolina.

Gov. Chamberlain would seem to have fought a good fight against the corruptionists, winning in almost every battle, although the enemy was bold, confident and unscrupulous. Thus far his administration has been marked by a series of surprises, which have been agreeable to none more than to those who opposed his election on the ground of his reputed questionable relations with the robber gang who reduced the State to bankruptcy and made its name a by-word in the politics of the country. It is a good sign that the leaders of this gang are now his bitter enemies. He has only to persevere, and with the hearty co-operation of the Conservatives and honest Republicans, South Carolina may be redeemed.—N. Y. Tribune.

ACQUITTED.—Messrs. Richardson, Belo & Co., editors and proprietors of the Galveston, Texas News, were arraigned on a charge of contempt of court; which charge, however, was not sustained, and the parties were dismissed.

EUROPEAN CROPS.

It would perhaps be prudent to receive with some allowance the late cable reports relative to the condition of the European crops. It is a fact to be noted, as suggesting a commentary on these reports, that they have been confined entirely to unfavorable features, and have made no allusion in any instance to the great improvement in the crops of England and the Continent that mail advices uniformly represent as having set in about the beginning of May and which has established almost uniformly good prospects for the harvest. About two weeks ago the cable informed us of serious effects to the French crops from drought. Our mail advices of the same date make no allusion to anything of the kind. On the contrary, our advices from Sumner of May 20th state: "Since our last report, the weather has been very favorable for vegetation, and the present appearance of the growing cereals is most luxuriant and promising well for the future." A Paris report of the 21st ult., says: "The wheat plant on heavy soils continues to give general satisfaction;" and another report from the same point, dated a day later, states: "The heat lately prevalent has been succeeded by thunder showers in a large number of places, particularly in Lorraine and Burgundy, and the greatest benefit has been derived therefrom."

Our advices from Germany and South Russia come up to May 22, and, without exception, represent the weather as eminently favorable to vegetation and the condition of the crops as highly satisfactory. In view of this uniform testimony from a variety of points, we are at a loss to understand what the Mark Lane Express can refer to when, in its report for last week, it speaks of injury on the Continent from "frosts and drought."

Another cable report, dated London, June 8th, says: "Late advices from Hungary give discouraging reports of the crops, which have been exceedingly backward, and indicate a generally decreased yield." How this compares with the following commercial advices from Pesth, of May 22, we leave our readers to judge: "Weather fine. The weather during the last seven nights has been pre-eminently Spring-like. The whole of vegetation has been marvellously refreshed and invigorated, and with gigantic strides is now making up for the time that has been lost." Had the London grain trade attached any importance to the sort of rumors that have been cabled over to New York, we should not have witnessed the dullness and weakness in that market that have lately prevailed.—New York Bulletin.

THE BEECHER TRIAL.

As the Beecher trial draws to a close the excitement in Brooklyn and New York is becoming intense and all-pervading. The Brooklyn Argus, of Friday, says:

"After five months waiting with various floods and ebbs of interest, the excitement was yesterday such as has not been seen in Brooklyn since the trial commenced. On the previous day Mr. Beecher admitted that Mr. Beecher was a great man, and had done many noble things, but said he proposed to show that this did not guarantee him the right to desecrate Theodore Tilton's home. Aside from the sublime-like tilt in the Court House, several hundred persons assembled around the building to hear the explanation. Mr. Beecher was frequently interrupted by applause during his remarks, which the Court was powerless to suppress, and when he left the building he was surrounded by an immense, cheering crowd, which followed him until he took refuge in Judge Morris' office."

"Beecher briefly touched upon the theory once so prevalent of granting indulgences to those who contributed money or service to society. But he said, this community and this age of the world are not prepared to sanction the idea of sacrificing one man's family to gratify the passions of any other man, even if that man were Henry Ward Beecher. Under such a rule, what has occurred to Tilton's household may occur to that of any person. In reply to the argument of the other side, that Mr. Beecher's previous professions and oath of his sacred office forbade the idea that he could have committed the offense of adultery, Mr. Beecher recited the history of sixteen clergymen who had been convicted of this offense."

"The scene at the adjournment of the court was certainly one of the most remarkable that ever characterized a judicial proceeding in any country. The vast concourse that thronged the entrances, crowded the stairway and filled the vestibule, lingered to greet the orator of the day, and when Mr. Beecher emerged, the enthusiasm that had been so long repressed found vent in a perfect storm of cheers. Anon it subsided, only to break forth again with greater ardor than before, the multitude following him down the street, and continuing their acclamations until he disappeared. If this case lacked anything to make it historic, such an outburst goes far to suppress that want. It recalls the popular tumult so graphically described by Macaulay, that followed the trial of the Bishops, and the demonstrations that attended the impeachment of Warren Hastings when old Westminster echoed to the sonorous eloquence of Burke, the rattling volleys of Sheridan, and the fiery periods of Fox."

By request, we publish the following cautionary section, as to the "Mail Car" on Rail Roads: The public would do well to read it.

SECTION 22. The car or apartment allotted to the use of a route agency is for the exclusive accommodation of mails, and the persons specially appointed to take charge of the same. It is strictly private, not to be entered by any person except regular special agents of the Post Office Department, and those who may be otherwise duly authorized. The conductor of the train however, will have access to it in the performance of his duties, and, in case of necessity, other rail road hands may pass through, but none of them shall be allowed to remain therein.

Boss Tweed, of New York, has been released from the Penitentiary, by a recent opinion of the Court of Appeals. He was convicted of misappropriating city funds, and sentenced to hard labor for life. It was made to appear that there was error in the proceedings which convicted him or want of jurisdiction. There are other charges against him, and he will probably give the bail demanded for his appearance at the proper time to answer these charges.

Says the Wilmington Star: General Sherman has written a book descriptive of his military operations during the late war. It will be remembered that he charged Gen. Hampton with burning Columbia. In his book, however, he admits that the charge was groundless and says he made it in order to shake the faith of his people in him. Here we have a published confession from the Commander in Chief of the Armies of the American Republic of having uttered a willful falsehood.

The wheat harvest turns out better than was expected. In some localities it is unusually heavy.

REPORTED END OF THE RAILWAY ROW—THE TERMS OF SETTLEMENT.

The railroad war is regarded as having in effect ended, although the settlement arrived at by the contending parties may not be officially made until a few days hence. The compromise agreement was indorsed on the part of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad by the Vice-President of the Board of Directors, Mr. King, and is subject to the review and approval of President and directors; but it is not likely that Mr. King will make any concessions beyond those covered by his instructions from President Garrett. The treaty of peace is understood to be substantially as follows: The rates of freight are to be uniform, as agreed upon before the war, but prorated per cent of distance to the Baltimore and Ohio road, on Northwestern freight, and to the New York and Pennsylvania roads on the Northwestern freight. To all competing points the tariff is to be uniform, and prorated per mile. The Baltimore and Ohio business is to have the same and equal facilities and privileges over the Camden and Amboy road as are extended by that road to other connecting roads. It is agreed upon that if any disputes or differences arise hereafter between the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio roads, the same shall be referred to committees, to be chosen by the respective boards of directors for arbitration, before any hostile acts shall take place or any existing arrangements be broken.

This compromise appears to be fair to the roads immediately concerned and advantageous to the public and to the shareholders of all the trunk lines. A revengeful and ruinous competition can only end in breaking down the value of railroad property and in impairing the efficient service and safety of the roads. Such a war as that, which may now be considered ended, only benefits stock gamblers. A few weeks of freight below the legitimate rates is no real advantage to the business community.—New York Herald of the 13th.

BUNKER HILL.

Centennial of the Great Battle—Magnificent Military Display—Grand Parade of Knight Templars.

BOSTON, June 17.—The day was cloudless, and every train swarmed with visitors. Teams were present in great numbers. Notwithstanding the vast crowds, the order was excellent and there were but few arrests. The State troops led the parade. Most hearty shouts were reserved for the Philadelphia Regiment clad in gray. The Walker of Va., the Charleston Light Infantry and the New York seventh. The Maryland fifth bear their elegant flag presented to it yesterday. The parade of soldiers occupied two hours in passing the State House.

While the military review was proceeding at the State House, the commandery of Knight Templars of Boston, escorted their visiting brethren of the Richmond Commandery, to Charlestown, where they were received by the Comdr. De Leon Commandery, and thence to the Old Fells Hall. Addresses of welcome were made by the Hon. Richard Frothingham of the Comdr. De Leon Commandery, and by Grand Commander W. B. Isaacs, which were responded to by Ex-Gov. Walker of Va. Speeches were also made by eminent Commander Patterson of the Comdr. De Leon Commandery and eminent Commander W. E. Tanner. A collection closed the exercises. The general display was the most magnificent ever seen in this city.

The entire procession was seven miles long, and was composed of thirty thousand people.

FROM MISSOURI.

We have been kindly furnished with the following, which will be interesting to many persons in this section of country:

KINGSVILLE, Mo., June 10, 1875.

E. A. VOGELER, Esq., Dear Sir: In consequence of chinch bug and drought last year, crops of every kind were almost a total failure in Western Missouri. Large numbers of stock died through the winter for lack of food. This Spring the farmers made unusual efforts to overcome the evil. The first, and most successful, was the second planting was swept away, leaving the farmer without a corn, penitence, and almost hopeless. The grasshopper eggs were deposited here last fall as numerous as the corn upon the soil. The hatching process began about the last of March, and up to this date still goes on, while the first have taken to themselves wings, but are too feeble to fly. Every vestige of every green thing upon the face of the earth has disappeared, and looks as black and bare as midwinter. Fruits of all kinds have gone the same way, and the trees are as bare as in autumn.

In western Johnson county, especially in Kingsville Township, very great suffering and destitution prevail. The citizens of more favored localities are doing everything in their power to mitigate suffering and brace up the faltering, but when all is done that can be accomplished here, with no vegetables, no fruit, no wheat and no prospect of a corn crop, there must be suffering to an alarming extent, if not actual starvation.

This is written in the interest of North Carolinians, living in this Township and other parts of western Johnson county, many of whom are in need of the commonest necessities of life, and any contributions sent them by their friends in North Carolina, or elsewhere, will be thankfully received and properly applied by the undersigned.

The exertions of your personal influence in behalf of the sufferers, and the co-operations of all to whom these facts may be made known, are earnestly and respectfully solicited.

C. W. MOSS, MARTIN MARIAN, E. BLACKBURN, Committee for relief of N. Carolinians.

Report of Committee on condition of crops in Kingsville Township, Johnson County, Mo., June 9th, 1875.

Acres of Wheat sown, 3,025. Totally destroyed
" " Oats " 765 " "
" " Meadow " 1,320 " "
" " Millet " 235 " "
" " Rye " 25 " "
" " Flax " 25 " "
" " Corn planted, 7,365. 6,395 totally destroyed.

And the committee further report that a large amount of corn land was prepared, in addition to the above, and not planted on account of the grasshoppers.

Pastures and potatoes also destroyed.

D. B. REAVIS, Chairman. Report of Relief Committee for Kingsville Township, Johnson County, Mo., June 9th, 1875.

There are now in the Township about 63 families who are destitute of the means of subsistence, and have no means to procure them, and will be compelled to suffer unless assistance is afforded them. There are about 100 farmers who cannot raise a crop this year unless they are furnished with seed for planting and feed for teams.

The above reports were this day approved by the Relief Association of Kingsville Township.

J. E. HICKMAN, Sec'y. June 9th, 1875.

OMAHA, June 14.—Immense clouds of grasshoppers made their appearance, flying north-west, over this place, about eleven o'clock today, but none have alighted. They have appeared in immense swarms at Plattsmouth, Neb., and are destroying everything before them. They move every morning northward.

From the Warrensburg Democrat of June 18th.

It is absolutely impossible for any one, who has not had the opportunity to see what devastation exists in our county, to have any adequate conception of our condition. If half the truth were made public, it would be sufficient harrowing to bring a tear of sympathy from the most callous-hearted wretch in Christendom.

We are telling no sensational story when we say that hundreds of people in Johnson county are living on bread and water, and in a great many instances even that is about exhausted. Judge D. B. Reavis told us, on Wednesday, that the destitution is so great in his (Kingsville) township, that scores of people, who are ordinarily good lives, are actually emaciated and sick from lack of something to eat. He says that whole families are, and have been for weeks past, living on bread and water and now the bread is exhausted.

Mr. William S. Foster, of Simpson township, brings a similar report from his neighborhood. He says that he knows more than fifty people, men, women and children, in his neighborhood, who are dragging their emaciated forms about, and working all they can, and subsisting upon a very meager supply of bread and water.

When such gentlemen as these vouch for the truth of this, it no longer leaves any room for doubt. They are as responsible, in every sense of that word, as any gentlemen in the State of Missouri, as is abundantly established by their reputation in this county.

Then, we say to our friends in Saint Louis and elsewhere, where this blighting, withering curse and deep distress has not fallen, help our people, and for God's sake, help them at once. Ten days hence may be too late. The starving mother may have pressed her dying child to her bosom for the last time. The father and husband may have seen his children and wife gasping and struggling in death, as they pitifully beg him for bread; and he must stand and see this, though his heart burst, for he can't help it. Help may be just in sight, but it may be too late.

We could multiply testimonials by the score, as to the truth of this, but it certainly can't be necessary. If those who are able to help us will not believe what is so abundantly established, they would not believe though one arose from the dead. Send help at once, if you expect to accomplish anything, for it will not take much longer for hundreds of the people of Johnson county to be beyond the reach of aid.

Another article in the same paper says: We had two failures of crops. In 1873 and in 1874 the crops were short on account of the drought. In 1874 the chinch bug destroyed what the drought had left. And in 1875 the grasshoppers covered the face of the earth, destroying everything in portions of Johnson county. If we can get seed corn, Hungarian and turnip seed, we may save ourselves from absolute starvation; but these must be donated, as the people have not the money to pay for them.

THE N. C. UNIVERSITY.

The Trustees met at Raleigh last week and elected the following gentlemen to fill Professorships:

Mathematics—Charles Phillips, now of Davidson College, an old Professor at Chapel Hill.

Agriculture—Prof. John Kimberly, now at Asheville, and a Professor at the Hill before the war.

Engineering—Ralph H. Graves, Jr., 24 years of age, son of R. H. Graves of the Graves and Horner School in Hillsboro.

Languages—J. D. B. Hooper of Wilson, N. C., Professor at Chapel Hill near forty years ago.

School of Philosophy—Rev. A. W. Mangum, pastor of Elenor Street Methodist Church of Raleigh.

Natural Science—Rev. A. F. Reelf of Raleigh. Adjunct Professor of Literature—George P. Winston of Bertie county.

St. Nicholas.—The favorite and brilliant monthly for young folks opens with a seasonal article "Jack's Independence Day," just suited to the capacities of young minds, and will interest the boys. "The Eight Cousins" by Mr. Alcott continues to increase in interest. A sketch of a naval victory 100 years ago will be read with interest, while the "Young Surveyors" success in capturing Snow-foot will cause the boys to cheer. The other departments are good.—$3 a year. Scribner & Co., 745 Broadway, New York.

The July number of Lippincott's Magazine, beginning the sixteenth volume, is peculiarly bright and sparkling, possessing all the usual characteristics of this delightful periodical. The opening article, "May in June," gives the reader an idea of life at Cape May, the popular Sea Shore Summer resort, for the Middle and some of the Southern States. The other articles are very interesting and calculated to entertain as well as instruct. $4 per year. Philadelphia, J. B. Lippincott & Co.

Scotchmen for July, has a splendid article on "The city of the Golden Gate, giving the reader a fair idea of that great city. 'The Girl at Rudder Grange' is amusing. These literary papers are followed by unexceptionably good articles "A Farmer's Vacation" "Story of Seven oaks" and a number of readable papers. It is undoubtedly one of the best periodicals for varied and entertaining reading published. $4 a year.

Reports from five-sixths of Missouri promise immense crops. It is estimated that the Arkansas Valley will produce 2,000,000 bushels wheat and Northwestern Kansas as much more in rye, barley and oats.

A tornado prevailed at Quincy, Ill., on the 16th. Many houses are prostrated, and one man killed and many hurt.

ABOLITION OF SLAVERY IN PORTUGAL.—Information has been received at the Department of State of the passage by acclamation, on the 22nd of March last, of an act by the Cortes of the Kingdom of Portugal, granting the unconditional freedom to the remaining Portuguese slaves known as apprentices of freedom. The act in question puts an end to slavery forever in Portugal and her dependencies, and not only proclaims the freedom of the apprentices and the abolition in the Portuguese dominions of man's pretensions to man, but declares that the labor of the apprentices was under tutelage is free, and that they are at liberty to make their own contracts, subject only to the revision of the proper authority.

A MILLION DOLLAR WEDDING PRESENT.—Miss Alice M. Singer, daughter of the sewing machine inventor, was married on Wednesday in South Devon, England, to W. A. P. La Grove, formerly of Brooklyn. It is stated that the bride's dowry is one million dollars, in addition to which she received ten thousand dollars' worth of diamonds. Her wedding dress cost thousands of dollars, and each of the six bridesmaids received a dress worth two hundred and fifty dollars from Mr. Singer.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

STATE ITEMS.

FACTORY BURNED.—We learn by a "postal" from the Senior, that the large Spoke and Handle Factory belonging to Clark & Emmert, situated at Rowan Mills, Western N. C. R. R., was totally destroyed by fire on the night of the 14th, together with a large lot of flour, bacon, lard, corn and wheat. Loss $10,000.—Salemville American.

SEVERE HAIL STORM.—We have been informed, that on last Saturday there was a most destructive hail storm in Davie county, commencing near Reedy Creek and extending into Davidson, a distance of more than ten miles with a breadth of one and a half. The stones were in some instances so large, that shingles were knocked from the roofs of buildings, and turkeys and other fowls killed in numbers.—The damage to wheat and other crops is said to have been extensive.—Salemville American.

At Yulkin College some of the hall-boys weighed three quarters of an ounce. The storm was also very severe in and around Lexington.

A severe hail storm visited the upper portion of Mecklenburg county and Cabarrus around Concord. On some farms the damage was severe.

A Pasquotank woman gave birth to an infant, in the Asylum, the other day. She had not been long in the institution.

At Wake Forest College commencement, the following degrees were conferred upon the members of the graduating classes: Bachelor of Philosophy—R. C. Standing, Wake county. Bachelor of Science—W. W. Jenkins, Charlotte. Bachelor of Arts—L. W. Bagley, Johnston county; W. C. Brewer, Wake County; Thomas Carrick, Davidson county; J. Y. Phillips, and M. D. Phillips, Stokes county. Master of Arts—John E. Ray, Wake county; H. R. Scott, Rockingham county.

Mrs. Adams, formerly of Lincoln, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. T. C. Lindsay, in Morganton, on the 11th inst. It is a singular case. Dr. C. H. Hapgood, who attended her, thinks he discovered symptoms of poison. She said she had taken nothing, but she was bitten by an insect of some kind some years ago, and every Spring since, the bitter examination was to have taken place, with what result we have not learned.—Charlotte Observer.

Mr. Howell Dobson, of Warsaw Township, Duplin county, caught his foot in the carriage of a saw mill, fell across the log, when, in attempting to catch his left arm caught in contact with the saw and was nearly severed. It was subsequently amputated just below the elbow. His back was also badly injured.

It is said that Judge Mitchell contemplates resigning his position at an early day, if he has not already done so. His advanced age and feeble health induces him to resign.

If there are in North Carolina any relations of Lucian B. and N. S. Outlaw who lately died unmarried and heirless in Texas, let them address Mr. N. B. Outlaw, Milford, Tennessee, and they may find that they have come into a large property.

At Weldon last week, the trotting race was won by Bob Lee in three straight heats, beating Ajax from Martin. Bob Lee belongs to V. B. Sharpe, from Edgecombe. The running race was won by Hope over Hilday. Woods of Halifax. Hope is the property of Dr. Staton, of Edgecombe.

The Salisbury Watchman says: Mr. A. L. Johnson, of this vicinity, has just harvested an acre of winter oats which cost no labor. The land was in oats last year, and after taking off the crop, his cattle ran on the field until October, when they were taken off. The "stand" of volunteer oats was so promising about that time that Mr. J. concluded to leave it undisturbed, to see what it would do. The result was highly satisfactory; the best oats raised on his farm this year was on that lot—the heaviest head as well as much the largest yield in quantity. Mr. Johnson offers this extraordinary circumstance as suggestive of several points of general interest to the farming community. He thinks seed sown with a good tractor, the soil too deep for a good stand, and that if put in with a narrow wheel less seed per acre would be required. He thinks, also, that a heavy roller to pack the land would be serviceable as a protection against frost and affording a firmer foot hold for the plow.

Col. George Williamson, the able Senator from a former candidate for Convention, prints a card in the Milton Chronicle, in which he declines. He says: "I was a member of the Legislature calling a Convention, and if sent as a delegate to that Convention would as a legislator have to pass upon the action of that body and I should feel that in passing upon my own acts I should lose that independence of thought and action which I always hope to be able to exercise."

Prof. W. H. Neave, the founder of the Salisbury Cornet Band, and one of the best band instructors in the country, after an absence of several years, has returned to Salisbury, and will take the leadership of the band.

Says the Charlotte Observer: "Contributions to the Asylum at Oxford, have been coming in so slowly for the last month, that the manager finds himself in a straight, and if assistance is not forthcoming right away, the little orphan are likely to suffer for food."

The property of the Fair of the Carolinians at Charlotte is offered for sale. The Association is only in debt $756.37.

It is charged that the guns of the Raleigh Light Artillery which were sold as "salvage" to the members of the Company at the Charlotte Centennial, were condemned pieces, and were turned over by the War Department to a Southern company because no other use could be made of them.

GENERAL NEWS.

A PROFITABLE ADVERTISING JOB.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune states that the total amount of the bill for the publication of the document tax of the District of Columbia in the National Republican will be about $90,000, of which more than $70,000 will be clear profit. It occupies 420 columns, and is by law to appear four times, at the rate of 25 cents a line per column. As originally passed the law required eight insertions, which would have made the bill nearly $200,000, of which at least $170,000 would have been profit. At the last session of Congress the original act was amended as to provide for four publications, and to postpone the advertisement from March to June, thus reducing the number of publications and cutting down the expense one-half. The expense has been still further reduced by the settlement of a great number of delinquent taxes within the past three months. The Tribune's correspondent alleges that the influence of the White House was used to secure the job for the Republican, and thinks it an ample reparation for its energy and devotion in advocating a third term for Gen Grant.

SOLAR INCENDIARISM.—A correspondent of the Pull Mail Gazette writes: "Two incidents have just occurred which more than suggest that some 'mysterious' fires may have had their origin in the action of the sun on glass. A few days ago the master of the steamer Volunteer in Plymouth Sound, found that a large hole had been burned in the centre of the covering of his berth, and that the fire had penetrated to the bed itself, which was smoking. It was then discovered that this resulted from the concentration of the sun's rays by the glass of the berth, and that the fire had been kindled by the heat. All ordinary theories of the causes of fire failed to account for this one, and it was ascertained that the globe of the lamp of the concentrated solar rays and directed them on the spot where the canvas had been, and thus doubtless occasioned the fire."

METHODIST MISSIONS.—The Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the recent meeting in Nashville, made the following appropriations for the next year:

To the China Mission	$7,500
To Mexico	11,300
To Indian Mission Conference	9,000
To Germany	3,000
To West-ru	2,000
To Denver	3,000
To Los Angeles	3,000
To Columbia (Oregon)	4,000
To Pacific (California)	5,000
To Florida	3,000
To Brazil Mission (just organized)	1,000

To meet this appropriation and to provide for further enlargement of the mission work of the Church, the Board assessed $100,000 among the several annual conferences.

HONOR TO SCHURZ.—Ex-Senator Carl Schurz, if he has not exactly found himself vindicated at last in the land of his nativity, has the satisfaction of being able to "shake hands across the bloody chasm" of German politics. In Berlin, where perhaps he would have been put in jail and subsequently hung some years ago, he was the recipient of a banquet tendered by Americans, resident members of the Prussian diet and professors of the Berlin University. Mr. Schurz is one of those prophets who is without honor in his own country until he first leaves it, and reaping honor in some other land, returns on a short visit.—Exchange.

PUNISHING CONVERTS TO CHRISTIANITY.—Recent accounts from Turkey represent that severe punishments continue to be inflicted on those who renounce the Mohammedan faith and embrace Christianity. Formerly such converts were cruelly put to death; but the combined protest of Christian powers effected an amelioration in this respect. But imprisonment and stripes are still resorted to, and the victims are subjected to scoffs and revilings. Glorious indeed is the religious liberty of our own free country; and how strikingly its contrast with this condition of things in Turkey.

Quite a number of cows have recently died in Abbeville county, S. C., from bleeding at the nose. It is a new disease in the locality, and no means has yet been discovered of arresting its progress.

An interviewer tried to get something out of Butler touching Grant's letter. "Nay," said Bully Ben, "I renounce the Devil and his works." This is said to be the most sudden conversion on record.

SPOTTED TAIL'S IDEA OF JESUS CHRIST.—A correspondent of the Courier-Journal interviewed Spotted Tail while in Washington, and among other things questioned him as to his belief in the Saviour, and the Indian's answer was as follows:

"I have heard all about him; how good he was; what great things he did; how he would help the bad men to be good; and how the white Christ that I had heard of, and I have also heard how the white man killed him. The Indian never would have done that; he never would have murdered the Son of the Great Spirit. He would have given him anything and his own life; would have given him anything and all he had, and for him would have gone upon the war-path and conquered the world. It was for a long time after I first heard about Jesus Christ that I did not understand how the white Christ could have killed him; but when I got better acquainted with the whites, when I realized the fact that they had no respect for the rights of the Indian; they would take away his home where he lived, murder him and his children, despoil his women, and rob him of his wife's goods, I then readily understood how they could ever kill the Son of the Great Spirit as they did."

FROST.—On Sunday night, June 13th, a very heavy frost visited the southern sections of New Jersey. The damage done to growing crops is said to be very heavy.

We have the pleasure of announcing, that there will be a grand Concert given in the Music Hall, Salem, on next Saturday June 26th, at 8 o'clock P. M., for the benefit of Salem Cornet Band.

The music for this occasion has been carefully selected by Prof. A. C. Meinung, and the performances promise to be a rich treat to all lovers of good music.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Tuesday afternoon, the citizens in the vicinity of Mr. E. A. Vogler's new building were startled by a tremendous crash of falling timbers. On hurrying to the spot, we found that a portion of the scaffolding had fallen, precipitating Mr. Vogler and his two sons, Jno. A. and C. W., who were engaged in painting the building, to the ground. Mr. E. A. Vogler received some painful, but not serious bruises; a heavy scaffold pole fell across John's back, injuring him considerably; and Charles received an ugly cut on the neck and a sprained ankle.

It was truly a miraculous escape, as the fall was some fifteen or twenty feet, among a quantity of lumber and brick. Dr. Siewers was promptly on hand, and rendered all necessary assistance. The two young men were quite sore Wednesday morning, but doing as well as could be expected.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. E. A. Vogler's new dwelling is fast approaching completion and makes a very fine appearance.

Col. R. L. Patterson is preparing to enlarge and otherwise improve his dwelling. His grounds have for years been most beautifully laid out, and the contemplated improvements will add much to their appearance.

Mr. J. W. Fries is also at work improving the ground in front of his dwelling, adjacent to Col. Patterson's home.

Mr. Edward Butner occupies his new dwelling on Cherry Street.

We are pleased to note these improvements, hoping it may stimulate others to go and do likewise.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT.—Mr. Jas. Crumpler, of this place, had a portion of two fingers of his left hand cut off by a straw cutter, on Friday morning.

We would again call attention to the springs beyond the creek, and the mineral spring on Marshall street, as localities which might be much improved and beautified at comparative small expense, giving pleasant resorts to our people during the summer months.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—A Lodge of this order was organized in Commissioner's Hall, yesterday afternoon. Several initiations at night.

There was considerable enthusiasm, if noisy demonstrations are any indication of it.

DREW BERRIES.—Our market is well supplied with dew berries, at prices varying from 3 to 5 cents a quart.

The early apple crop will prove almost a failure. The grape crop will be our main reliance for fruit, and we are glad to state that the vineyards in this neighborhood were never more promising.

We are indebted to D. M. Zimmerman, Secretary and Treasurer of the Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company, for an elegantly printed copy of "Sea Side Views of the City by the Sea," or better known as Atlantic City. The engravings are beautiful and the letter press interesting.

REV. W. W. ALBEE resigned his position as Postmaster of Winston. W. A. Walker, succeeds him.

GRASSHOPPERS.—We received a tin box containing a lot of grasshoppers from Dr. Kinyon of Mo., last week. They were all dead, but gave a fair idea of the little pests, described by the worthy border in his communication, a few weeks since. They resemble our common medium sized grasshoppers.

The distinguished poet of Paul H. Hayne, the distinguished poet of the South, will be glad to hear that he is engaged by the enterprising publisher of the Wilmington Morning Star, to contribute monthly articles to that lively and interesting daily. It will add much to the interest of the paper.

The commencement exercises of Yadkin College, came off on Thursday last. A large number of people were in attendance, and the exercises creditable to all concerned.

Dr. Craven of Trinity College, delivered the Literary Address in his usual able manner. At the close of the address nearly two thousand dollars were contributed towards building a chapel. The Salem Cornet Band enlivened the occasion with music.

LARGE TURTLE.—Mr. Causey has on exhibition a large Sea Turtle front of his Confectionary stand in Winston.

COUNTY EXHIBIT.—The amount of receipts paid into the hands of the county Treasurer of Forsyth from the general county taxes, exclusive of the capitation tax, from the 16th day of April, 1874, to the 15th day of June, 1875, was $12,242.91. Treasurer's commissions on this amount $185.64. Amount of disbursements for the same period $7,148.07. Treasurer's commissions on disbursements $107.22. Leaving a balance still in the hands of Treasurer of $4,803.88.—Republican.

TEACHER'S EXAMINATION.—The Common School Teacher's examination will take place at the Court House, on Thursday, July 1st.

AUGUST FLOWER.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint.

More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effect; such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, impure blood, heart burn, waterbrash, graving and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of the food after eating, low spirits, &c. Go to the Drug Store of V. O. Thompson, Winston, N. C., and get a 75-cent bottle, or a sample bottle for ten cents. Try it.

The Wilson Sewing Machine.—Who cares for the paltry "sum" of 15 dollars saved in buying a Sewing Machine? The man who does is the farmer, who makes his money by the sweat of his brow, and buys the "Wilson," the best first class machine yet made; and saves his 15 dollars to put in his own pocket where it belongs. The gentlemanly representatives of the high priced Sewing Machine Companies want this 15 dollars, but the farmer worked for it, and had rather keep it himself. The farmer is right every time. Before you buy a Sewing Machine, see and examine the first-class, low priced Wilson, for yourself and have a talk with A. M. JONES, Agent.

This fact, together with the large size, elegant appearance, and many new features of the book, causes it to sell more rapidly than any work ever published in this country. FARMER JOHN.

Home from his journey Farmer John
Arrived this morning safe and sound,
His black coat off, and his old clothes on,
"Now I'm home," says Farmer John,
And he thinks, "I'll look around."
Up leaps the dog: "Get down you pup!
Are you so glad you would not stop up?"
The old cow lows at the gate to meet him;
The horses pick up their ears to meet him;
Well, well, old day!
Ha, ha, old day!

Do you get good feed when I am away?
"You have not a rib!" says Farmer John;
"The cattle are looking round and sleek;
The colts are going to be a team;
And a beauty too, for a row!"
We'll wear the calf next week,"
Says Farmer John: "When I've been off,
To call you again about the trough,
And watch you, as you pet your wife, you drink,
Is a greater comfort than you can think!"
And he pats old Bay.
And he slaps old Gray.
"All, this is the comfort of going away!"

For after all," says Farmer John,
The best of a journey is getting home,
I've seen great sights; but would I give
This spot and the peaceful life I live,
For all their riches and their power?
These hills for the city's stifled air,
And high hotels all bustle and glare,
Land all houses, and roads all stone up?
That deafen your ears and batter your bones?
Would you, old Gray?
Would you, old Bay?
That's what one gets by going away!

There money is king," says Farmer John;
And Fashion is queen; and brightly queer,
To see how sometimes, while the man,
Is raking and scraping all he can,
The wife spends every cent,
Enough you would think for a score of wives,
To keep them in luxury all their lives!
The town is a perfect Babylon
To a quiet chap, like Farmer John.
You see, old Bay,
You see, old Gray,
I'm wiser than when I went away.

I've found out this," says Farmer John,
That happiness is not bought and sold,
And clutched in a life of waste and hurry,
In nights of pleasure, and days of worry,
And wealth isn't all in gold.
Mortgage and stocks and sweet content,
But in simple ways and sweet content,
Few wants, pure hopes, and noble ends,
Some land to till, and a few good friends,
Like you, old Bay,
And you, old Gray,
That's what I've learned by going away."

And a happy man is Farmer John,
O, a happy and happy man is he;
He sees the peas and pumpkins growing,
The corn in the field, the buckwheat blowing,
And fruit on 'ye and tree;
The large kind o' hen looks their thanks
As he rubs their foreheads and strokes their flanks;
The doves light round him, and strut and coo,
Says Farmer John, "I'll take you too,
And you, old Bay,
And you, old Gray,
Next time I travel so far away!"

Humorous.

MR. COFFIN'S SPELLING MATCH.
The other evening old Mr. and Mrs. Coffin, who live on Brush street, sat in their cozy back parlor, "the morning newspaper, and she knitting, and the family cat stretched out under the stove, and sighed and felt sorry for cats so well fixed. It was a happy, contented household, and there was love in his heart as Mr. Coffin put down his newspaper and remarked:
"I see that the whole country is becoming excited about spelling schools."
"Well, its good to know how to spell," replied the wife. "I didn't have the chance some girls had, but I pride myself that I can spell almost any word that comes along."

"I'll see about that," he laughed; "now come, spell buggy."
"Haugh! that's nothing—b-u-g-g-y, buggy," she replied.
"Missed the first time—ha! ha!" he roared, slapping his leg.
"Not much—that was right!"
"It was, eh? Well, I'd like to see anybody get two g's into buggy, I would!"
"But it's spelled with two g's, and what school-boy will tell you so," she persisted.
"Well, I know a darn sight better than that!" he exclaimed, striking the table with his fist.
"I don't care what you know!" she squeaked.
"I know that there are two g's in buggy."
"Do you mean to tell me that I've forgotten how to spell?" he asked.
"It looks that way."

"It does, eh? Well, I want you and all your relations to understand that I know more about spelling than the whole caboodle of you strung on a wire."
"And I want you to understand, Jonathan Coffin, that you are an ignorant old blockhead, when you don't put two g's in buggy—yes, you are!"
"Don't talk that way to me," he replied, warningly.
"And don't shake your fist at me?" she replied.
"Who's a-shaking his fist?"
"You were."
"That's a lie—an infernal lie!"
"Don't call me a liar, you old bazaar! I've put up with your meanness for forty years past, but don't call me a liar, and don't lay a hand on me!"

"Do you want a divorce?" he shouted, springing up; "you can go now this minute!"
"Don't spit in my face—don't you dare do it, or I'll make a dead man of you," she warned.
"I haven't spit in your freckled old visage, yet, but I may, if you provoke me further!"
"Who's got a freckled face, you old turkey-buzzard?"

"That was a little too much. He made a motion as if he would strike, and she, with him by the neck tie. Then he reached out and grabbed her right ear, and tried to lift her off her feet, but she twisted up on the neck tie until his tongue ran out.
"Let go of me, you old fiend!" she screamed.
"Get down on your knees and beg my pardon, you old wild cat," he replied.
They surged and swayed and struggled and the peaceful air was disturbed by the overturning table, and laid her back broke, while the clock fell down and the pictures danced round. The woman finally shut off her husband's supply of wind, and dropped him, and as she bumped his head up and down and scattered his gray hairs, she shouted in a terrible voice:

"You want to get up another spelling school with me, don't you?"
He was seen limping around the yard, yesterday, a stocking around his throat, and she had a court-plaster on her nose, and one finger tied up. He wore the look of a martyr, while she had the bearing of a victor, and, from this time out, "buggy" will be spelled with two g's in that house.—Detroit Free Press.

SAY!!

Is Your Life Insured?

If not, have it done at once, but first come to the undersigned and examine statements showing the standing of all the different Companies, and then select the strongest and safest. The best is always good enough, and in Life Insurance it will cost less than an inferior article.

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL

is the second largest Life Company in the world, and will insure your life on the most reasonable terms.

Its expenses are less than any other Company, therefore its dividends can be and are greater, reducing the premiums to the actual cost of insurance, for there are no stockholders to take the largest share of the profits.

Do not take my word for it, but come and examine the figures for yourselves.

NURSERY AGENCY.

Very Choice Trees and Plants.

HAVING TAKEN THE AGENCY FOR Mr. G. E. Bell's extensive "Baltimore Nursery," located at Littleton, in this State, I am now prepared to fill orders for TREES and PLANTS of the choicest and most desirable varieties, and on the most satisfactory terms.

I would call special attention to the new and very early varieties of PEACHES—The Beatrix, Louise and Rivers—all ripening ahead of Hale. These have now been thoroughly tested in this country, and have obtained the commendation of all who have seen them.

Mr. Bell's commenced packing his Beatrix, last year, (from 5,000 trees) on the 30th of June, shipped them to New York, where they arrived in perfect order, and sold for $6 to $8 per bushel.

Here they will ripen from the 12th to the 20th of June. Prices of Beatrix, Louise and Rivers $4 per dozen, and $20 per 100. Other varieties, as per Catalogue.

I would also direct attention to the NEWMAN SEEDLING STRAWBERRY of Southern origin, well known and very highly esteemed for a number of years, but until recently, closely held in private hands.

This berry is large, of finer flavor than Wilson's and two weeks earlier, remaining in bearing for nearly three months, and is perfectly adapted to our soil and climate. It is a remarkably firm and solid berry.

Prices of Plants—50 cents per doz; $5.00 per 100; $20 per 1000.

A large stock of Pure Wilson's ALBANY on hand. Plants very fine. Send for Catalogue.
